Description

The stone is relocated; once it was located on the field, further from the home. On the surface of the stone, in July 2011, the expedition studying the ancient cult sites, discovered a well-shaped hollow in the shape of a foot, which had not been seen earlier. The origin of the foot is natural - the hollow is 34 cm long, 12 cm wide and 4 cm deep, like a triangle. Large-grained red granite. Dimensions of the stone: 3,15 x 2,20 x 1,7 m, circumference 8,10 m. Around 3 m from this stone another stone, similar in terms of size, is located.
